THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF CIVIL SUPPLIES, CONSUMER AFFAIRS AND PUBLIC DISTRIBUTION (SHRI KAMALUDDIN AHMED): (a) and (b) Operational responsibility for implementing the Public Distribution System (PDS) in the country rests with the State Governments and U.T. Administrations. Decisions regarding opening of Fair Price Shops, eligibility criteria for issue of ration cards to bonafide consumers and operation procedures and regulatory measures are taken by the State Governments and U.T. Administrations. Bonafide residents of a State are generally issued ration cards for getting access to PDS. The Government of National Capital Territory (NCT) of Delhi has reported that bonafide residents fulfilling requirements laid down under the Delhi Specified Articles (Regulation of Distribution) Order 1981 are issued ration cards. Ration card is not intended to be linked to any other benefit or confer any entlement other than access to PDS.

Recommendations of the Standing Committee

727. SHRI RAMACHANDRAN PILLAI: Will the Minister of CIVIL SUPPLIES, CONSUMER AFFAIRS AND PUBLIC DISTRIBUTION be pleased to state:

(a) whether the Ministry considered the recommendations of the Standing Committee on Food; Civil Supplies Consumer Affairs and Public Distribution to supply at least 25 per cent of the foodgrains requirement of the family through Public Distribution System; and

(b) if so, what is Government's view on it?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF CIVIL SUPPLIES CONSUMER AFFAIRS AND PUBLIC DISTRIBUTION (SHRI KAMALUDDIN AHMED): (a) and (b) The Advisory Council on Public Distribution System (PDS) had suggested that larger and more meaningful qualitities of foodgrains should be supplied to the needy and deserving sections of the society. This view is in accordance with the recommendations of the Standing Committee on Food, Civil Supplies, Consumer Affairs and Public Distribution. A Committee of Ministers was set up to formulate recommendations in this regard. The Committee recommended, among other things, that at least a minimum quantity of 20 kgs foodgrains per family per month should be supplied through PDS. In order to ensure this the Committee had suggested that it is inevitable that certain relatively affluent categories of population are excluded
